

Late Mr. S. Kanthan , the school's Office-aide

How can anyone forget Late Mr. S. Kanthan of Karaveddi, the school's Office-aide. Everyone depended on "Kanthan's Karunai". A very loyal servant of the school, he was a man Friday to all. The school was literally his home and served at Velanai for nearly two decades. He was confidante of every teacher and Principal of the school. He knew more about everyone than anyone else, even the Principal. He was indeed a loyal servant of the school.
